CalPERS	AOL Time Warner current and former directors, investment banks and others	None	7/03	Seeking to recoup portion of estimated loss in excess of $250 million (PERF)	Attys: Peter Mixon; Kaplan, Fox Kilsheimer Program: Mark Anson (INVO)	CalPERS brought suit for violations of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), California state law and the common law to redress the large losses it has suffered as a result of the defendants alleged fraudulent scheme to materially inflate advertising revenue reported in the companies' publicly disclosed financial statements and, in turn, the value of AOL and AOL Time Warner securities. Specifically, defendants overstated AOL's reported advertising revenue by at least $1.7 billion through the use of sham transactions and improper accounting practices in order to ensure the consummation of the $200 billion merger between AOL and Time Warner, Inc. announced in January 2000. CalPERS' suit has been consolidated with similar suits brought by CalSTRS and the University of California. Each party has separate legal counsel. The litigation is in its very early stages. The class has announced a $2.4 billion settlement and Time Warner, Inc. has reserved $600 million to settle other outstanding litigation.
